The Hondon Valley is a beautiful, tranquil and mountainous area of Costa Blanca South, Spain. The area is very fertile, in fact an agricultural miracle of acres of vineyards, almonds & olive groves. Hondón is very dry and typically gets over 310 days of glorious Spanish sunshine per year! Summer temperatures are typically mid 30° celsius with a cool afternoon breeze. The locals describe the area as "tranquilo". So the Hondon Valley is a great place for that "get-away-from-it-all" holiday or to live peacefully in that typical Spanish mañana lifestyle. Many happily embrace the good clean air, the splendid vistas, the excellent fresh produce and the very cheap local wine
